* J. J. WILLIAMS' BODY

Taken to His Home in Valley Falls, R. I.

The body of J. J. Williams, who committed suicide at the Attawagan, has been sent to his home in Valley Falls, R. I. It is learned that during night each week that Mr. Williams spent in Danielson were the only nights that he did not spend at home and it is very probable that he had long considered the taking of his life in this place.

OBITUARY.

James Chase.

The body of James Chase, 82, will be brought to Danielson today (Friday) from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lucy M. Brock of Wickford, R. I., where he died Wednesday.

Mr. Chase had been at Wickford since Thanksgiving time, his health having failed perceptibly by then.

Mr. Chase was born at Abington, but has been a resident of Danielson for many years, living on Mechanic street, was engaged in various occupations during his long life, having been retired for years. Mrs. Chase died a few years ago. He leaves one daughter.

FUNERAL.

Mrs. Delia Bonnin.

Funeral services for Mrs. Delia Bonnin, 58, who died suddenly at her home in Attawagan Monday afternoon after having worked hard during the morning, were held at St. Joseph's church, Dayville.

At the requiem mass, Rev. J. J. Grear officiated at the requiem high mass. Bishop Wm. St. Joseph's rector, Louis E. Kennedy, was the funeral director in charge. Mrs. Bonnin leaves her husband and three children.
